Apple Tree Wassail

Oh, apple tree we wassail thee
And hope that thou will bear,
The Lord shall know where we shall be
To be merry another year,
To blow well and to bear well
And so merry let us be:
Let every man drink up his cup,
A health to the old apple tree.

Hat fulls, cap fulls, three-bushel bag fulls, tallets 'ole fulls, barn's floor fulls and little heaps under the stairs.

Three cheers - Hip,Hip,Hip....Huzzar! x 3

Wassail

Here we come a-wassailing among the leaves so green;
Here we come a-wandering so fair to be seen:
Love and joy come to you, and to you your wassail too,
And God bless you and send you a happy new year,
And God send you a happy new year.

Bud and blossom, bud and blossom, bud and bloom and bear,
So we may have plenty of cider all next year; (sing 'plen...ty' for words to scan)

Love and joy come to you, and to you your wassail too,
And God bless you and send you a happy new year,
And God send you a happy new year.

God bless the master of this house, likewise the mistress too;
And all the little children that round the table go,
Love and joy come to you, and to you your wassail too,
And God bless you and send you a happy new year,
And God send you a happy new year.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Black Joke

Black, white, yellow and green,
Black, white, yellow and green,
The crudest plum puddings that ever was seen,
They were black, white, yellow and green.

Brighton Camp

Oh! Let the night be ever so dark or ever so wet and windy.
I must return to the Brighton camp, to the girl I left behind me.

Blue Bells of Scotland

Oh where, and oh where,
Has my Highland laddie gone?
He's gone to the wars,
With his tartan jockstrap on.

Bonny Green Garters

Here's to the stockings and here's to the shoes
And here's to the bonny green garters.
A pair for me and a pair for you
And a pair for the ones that comes after.

Other sides may sing:

Here's to the lasses, we love them so well,
Though some are regular Tartars!
Here's to their stockings and here's to their shoes
And here's to their bonny green garters.

Constant Billy

Oh! my Billy, my constant Billy,
When will I see my Billy again?
When the fishes fly over the mountain,
That's when I'll see my Billy again.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Cuckoo's Nest

As I was a walkin' one morning in May
I met a pretty fair maid and unto her did say,
For love I'm inclined
And I'll tell you me mind
That me inclination lies in your cuckoo's nest.

Me darlin', says she, I am innocent and young,
And I scarcely can believe your false deluding tongue,
Yet I see it in your eyes,
And it fills me with surprise
That your inclination lies in me cuckoo's nest.

Some like a girl who is pretty in the face,
And some like a girl who is slender in the waist,
But I like a girl
Who will wriggle and will twist
At the bottom of the belly lies the cuckoo's nest.

Getting Upstairs

Three blind donkeys,
Three blind mares,
Three blind horses getting upstairs.
Such a getting upstairs you never did see.
Such a getting up stairs you never did see.

Glorisher

Why don't you take a bow sir?
Because I don't know how sir.
Why don't you take a bow sir?
Because I don't know how sir.
Why don't you take a bow sir?
Because I don't know how sir.
Sing, rolling in the dew makes the Milk Maid fair.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Happy Man

(Standing)

How happy's that man that's free from all care
That loves to make merry, that loves to make merry,
O'er a drop of good beer.

With his pipe and his friends, puffing hours away,
Singing sing after song 'til he hails the new day.

(Sticking)

He can laugh, dance and sing and smoke without fear,
Be as happy as a king 'til he hails a new year.

(Half Gyp)

How happy's the man that's free from all strife.
He envies no other, he envies no other
But travels through life.

(Hands Around)

Our seamen of old, they fear not their foes.
They throw away discord, the throw away discord,
And to mirth they're inclined.

Haste To The Wedding

Come haste to the wedding ye friends and ye neighbours
The lovers their bliss can no longer delay.
Forget all your sorrows your cares and your labours,
And let every heart beat with rapture today.

Highland Mary

Around sweet Highland Mary's grave,
We'll plant the fairest of lilies,
The primrose sweet, and violet blue,
Likewise the daffodillies.

But since this world's been grown so wide,
In some lonesome place we'll tarry,
Welcome then gather me to sleep,
With my Highland Mary.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Jockey to The Fair

'Twas on the morn of sweet May Day
When nature painted all things gay
Made birds to sing and lambs to play
And decked the meadows fair.

Young Jockie early in the morn
Arose and tripped it o'er the lawn.
His Sunday suit the youth put on,
For Jenny had vowed away to run
With Jockie to the fair.

For Jenny had vowed away to run
With Jockie to the fair.

Johnny's So Long To The Fair

O dear, what can the matter be?
Dear, dear, what can the matter be?
O dear, what can the matter be?
Johnny's so long at the fair.

He promised he'd buy me a fairing should please me,
And then for a kiss, oh! he vowed he would tease me,
He promised he'd bring me a bunch of blue ribbons,
To tie up my bonny brown hair.

Lads of Bunchum

Oh dear mother, what a fool I be,
Six young fellows come a-courting me.
Five were blind and the other couldn't see.
Oh dear mother, what a fool I be.

Lass of Richmond Hill

Sweet lass of Richmond Hill,
Sweet lass of Richmond Hill,
I'd crowns resign to call thee mine,
Sweet lass of Richmond Hill.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Lollipop Man

Oh the lollipop man has a great big stick
And all that he charges is a penny a lick
And he gets it out whenever he can
He's a dirty old devil is the lollipop man.

Maid of The Mill

The maid of the mill is a sweet pretty girl,
The maid of the mill for me!
The maid of the mill is a sweet pretty girl,
The maid of the mill for me!

She's as straight and tall as a poplar tree,
And her cheeks are as red as a rose;
She's one of the fairest young girls that you see,
When she's dressed in her Sunday clothes.

Or:

The Maid of the Mill,
The Maid of the Mill,
She's alright,
'Cos she's on the pill.
The Maid of the Mill,
The Maid of the Mill,
Some say she won't,
But I know she will.

Muriel Dashwood (Weyhill Fair)

It's I have been to Weyhill Fair
And oh what sights I did see there.
To hear my tale 'ud make you stare
And see the horses showing.
They come from east, they come from west.
They bring their worst and they bring their best.
And some they lead and they drive the rest
Unto the fair at Weyhill.
Sing fa la la la sing fa la la ley
Unto the fair at Weyhill.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Nuts In May

Here we go gathering nuts in May,
Nuts in May, nuts in May,
Here we go gathering nuts in May,
On a cold and frosty morning.

Nutting Girl

Come all of you young women, this warning by me take
If you should a-nutting go, oh, please get home on time
For if you should stay too late, to hear the ploughboy sing
You might have a young morris dancer to nurse up in the spring.

With my fal-lal, to my ral-tal-lal,
Whack-fol-the-dare-ol-day,
And what few nuts this poor girl had
She threw them all away.

Sung during final hey:
A nutting we will go my boys.
A nutting we will go.
We'll put a garland in our hat
And give the girls a show.

Old Molly Oxford

Old Molly Oxford slept on a featherbed,
The cat jumped up and fell asleep on her head,
Smothered her until she was dead,
Poor old Molly Oxford

Or:
Old Molly Oxford, stout and strong,
Old Molly Oxford just gone wrong.
Old Molly Oxford if you'll come along
And we will all be merry.
(George Butterworth from Sam Bennett))

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Postman's Knock

Every morning as true as the clock
Somebody hears the Postman's knock.
Every morning as true as the clock
Somebody hears the Postman's knock.

Queen's Delight

Isn't it the Queen's delight
To step abroad and take the air.
Stepping out and treading lightly
On the way to Towersey fair.

Hustling bustling, hurrying scurrying,
Nobody caring and nobody worrying,
Early, early in the morning,
On the road to Towersey Fair.

Room For The Cuckold

During each half-hey stick chorus, each verse repeated:
We do it all day, we do it all night,
Because it's our fertility rite.

Beecham's Pills a penny a box.
Beecham's Pills 'll cure the pox.

Oh my dear I do feel queer,
Must be all this lack of (or brewery name) beer.

We do it all day, we do it all night
And we still can't get the bloody thing right.

Shepherds Away

Shepherd's turnips too,
Rye grass seeds and clover too,
I can whistle I can play,
I can dance Shepherds Away.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Shepherd's Hey

I can whistle, I can sing,
I can do most anything.
I can sport and I can play,
I can dance the Shepherd's Hey.

Or:

I can sing and I can play,
I can dance the shepherd's hey.
Shepherd's hay and clover too.
Rye grass seeds and turnips too.

Sheriff's Ride

When apples are red and nuts are brown,
Petticoats up and trousers down.
She'll lay down for half a crown,
'long with the raggie-taggle gypsies oh.

Sumer is icumen in

Summer is a coming in
Loudly sing cuck-oo
Groweth sead and bloweth mead
And springeth wood a-new.

Sing cuckoo!

Ewe now bleateth after lamb
Low'th after calf the cow,
Bullock starteth, buck now verteth,
Merry sing cuck-oo.

Cuck-oo, cuck-oo,
Well now sing thy cuck-oo
Nor cease thy never nu.
Sing cuckoo, sing cuck-oo.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Sweet Jenny Jones

My sweet Jenny Jones, she is the pride of Llangollen.
My sweet Jenny Jones is the girl I love best.

The Rose

To see the dancers three on three
Is a most illustrious sight,
And if anyone saw a better one
Then you'll very know well he lied.
And if you'll come along with us
You're numbered as a friend
And the faded flower of England
Will rise and bloom again.

Additional Verse

When the sun comes up in the morning
And you hear the dancing boys,
Mother leave your pots and pans,
Sister leave your toys.
You can hear the bells a-ringing
As the squire calls them on.
They can dance away the night and day
And never step it wrong.

Vandalls of Hammerwich

Will she, won't she
Will she, won't she
Come to the Bower?
Will she, won't she
Will she, won't she
Come to the Bower?

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Washing Day

Thump! Thump! Scrub! Scrub! Scrub, scrub away.
The devil a bit of peace I get upon the washing day.

Willow Tree

Once they said my cheeks were red
But now they're scarlet pale,
For I like a silly girl
Believed his flattering tale.
He said he's never deceive me,
And I like a silly believed he,
For the moon and the stars so brightly shone
Over the willow tree.

Winsters Processional

This is it and that is it
And this is Morris dancing,
The piper fell and he broke his crown,
And wasn't that a chance, Sir?

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Winster Wakes

Winster Wakes there's ale and cakes
Allton Wakes there's trenchers
Bircho'er Wakes there's knives and forks
Sheldon Wakes there's wenchens.

This is it and that is it
And this is a morris dance, sir
Me father fell and broke his leg
And so I took a chance, sir.

I dunna know, you dunna know
What fun we had in Bampton.
Piece of beef and an old cow's head
And pudding baked in a lantern.

My new shoone they were so good
I could dance the morris if I would
And if in a hat and coat be dressed
I'll dance the morris with the best.

Morris dance is a pretty tune.
Lads and lasses plenty.
Every lad shall have his lass
And I'll have four and twenty

A toast let's call to one and all
And new ones we're befriending.
There's none so dear as them right here
And a song that's near ending.

Kennet Morris Men Songs for Dances

Woodman

Woodman, woodman, spare that tree
Touch not a single bough.
For years it has protected me
And I'll protect it now.,
Chop down an oak, a birch or pine
But not this slipp'ry elm of mine.
It's the only tree that my wife can't climb
So Woodman spare that tree.

Or:

It was a calm, still day in Yarmouth,
The channel was clear and wide,
As the Woodman, the last timber trading ship,
Sailed out on the evening tide.

They never saw The Woodman again;
They searched when it was light,
But that fine old timber vessel sank
That clear and peaceful night.

No one knows what happened
On that night in 1910;
But the crew and her cargo of woodpeckers
Were never seen again.

Upton upon Severn Stick Dance

Fee fi fo fum, I smell blood of a Morris Man.
